Ten Minutes Too Late To Stop Wedding.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Miss Louise Laureau, nineteen, of Hastings-on-Hudson, was engaged until recently to a young Frenchman who is now i Guatemala. She herself is French and was born in Paris. Her mother Mrs. Felice Martine, is a Frenchwoman, and so is her grandmother. The sentiment of the home is strongly pro-

Ten days ago Miss Laureau, who is a dressmaker, met Wesley Gustav Ricke, a photographer, of Brooklyn They liked each other from the start. But young Rieke was not approved by Miss Laureau's family, and when Mrs. Martine discovered that he was of Martine discovered that he was of German parentage, though born in America, she forbade him to come to her home. Then she told her daughter that she was not to see him.

Yesterday Mrs. Martine and her mother motored to Irvington to visit relatives. A few minutes after the machine was out of sight Miss Laureau and Rieke boarded a train for New York. They were married in the Municipal building.

Meanwhile the bride's mother and grandmother found out that she had gone to New York. In their automobile they followed her. They were ten minutes too late.

"Your daughter is married," said Aiderman Smith.

"Who's the man?" said Mrs. Martine.

COMMERCE CHAMBER French Relatives From Hastings HOLDS ANNUAL PICNIC

Members at Chesapeake Beach Citizens Plan to Put Their Assofor Day of Fun-Weather Conditions Ideal.

With ideal weather conditions and high spirits in anticipation of a day of high spirits in anticipation of a day of fun, more than 200 members of the Washington Chamber of Commerce and their friends and guests boarded a special train at Chesapeake Junction at II o'clock this morning for Chesapeake Heach, where the annual outing of the organization is being held today.

As early as 10:30 the excursionists began to arrive at the junction, some journeying as far as the District line in automobiles, while others packed into street cars. The whole atmosphere around the station was one of fun and good-fellowship.

Cld friends, who had not seen each other for months, met with hearty handshakes and paired off to talk over old times while waiting for the "rest of the boys" to arrive.

To add to the festivity of the occasion, Sol Minster's Band, which is to provide music for the day, and which arrived early at the station, struck up the familiar old strain of "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," and singing as they went, the crowd marched down the railroad track and filed into the long special train waiting to take them to the beach.

The members were all eager to reach the beach to get started on the program, the details of which have been kept strictly secret, and which, it is said, will offer a series of surprises and thrills as the day wears on. There is to be a football game with rules and regulations adapted to the crowd and place, and there will be also some aquatic sports and contests. One event, however, is known to all. This is the shore dinner

Crabs served in all kinds of tempting styles, clam-chowder, made from live, kicking, clams, hot corn-bread, and many, many other things are listed on the long menu. as the best way to secure the desired as the best way to secure the desired civic and moral reforms."

The foregoing statement by the Rev. John E. Briggs, of the Fifth Baptist Church, sounded the keynote of a mass meeting of citizens of Southwest Washington, at St. Dominic's Hall, Sixth and F streets southwest, last night.

The purpose of the meeting was to form a civic body in South Washington, but upon learning that for over thirty years such an organization had been in existence, the meeting decided to urge all members of the parent organization and new residents to meet again next Wednesday night to plan a vigorous campaign for better civic conditions in the section.

Dr. Millard T. Thompson, of the executive committee of the South Washington Citizens' Association, cited the various improvements obtained by his organization, and said that he welcomed the additional members, and renewed activity that doubtless would result from next Wednesday's meeting.

Other speakers were B. F. Lindas, who presided; A. Levy, A. G. Kreis, M. R. Fitzgerald, and J. T. O'Brien.

TODAY'S BEAUTY HINTS

To whiten and beautify the complexion permanently we have found no betdissolving four ounces of spurmax in a half pint of hot water, then adding two teaspoonfuls of glycerin. This removes any pimples, shiny, muddy or sallow appearance, and will make anyone's skin clear, smooth and velvety. It does not show or rub off like powder; in fact, it seems a part of the skin; and for removing tan and freckles is unequaled. It is necessary to shampoo more frequently in the warmer weather because of excessive dust and the fact that the head perspires more, and is usually more exposed to the weather. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers can be prepared very cheaply by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox, obtained from your druggist, in a cup of hot water. This rubbed into the scalp creates a thick lather, soothing and cooling in its action, as well as very beneficial to scalp and hair. After rinsing, the scalp is fresh and clean, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very
